

Full Count Big Band Swings into The New Year

WESTFIELD – The Full Count Big Band will be the featured performer during the annual fundraiser for the Cranford Dramatic Club

(CDC) Community Theater in Cranford. This year's benefit show, Swingtime at CDC, will feature many of the stars and vocalists from the CDC roster. The show starts at 8 p.m. and runs for two consecutive evenings on March 2 and 3.

"We are excited to have a return visit by Full Count supporting the CDC," notes show producer Roger Hayden. "It will be an exciting weekend for great music and plenty of room for dancing."

Tickets for the event are $20 for theater-style seating or $30 for cabaret-style table seating up close to the dance floor. Complementary refreshments will be available during the show.

At these shows, Full Count will entertain the audience with a performance featuring the CDC vocalists singing traditional big-band favorites and a number of new arrangements featuring Full Count's newest addition, Aubrey Parasolle, a young jazz vocalist who has played local crowds in jazz clubs and performance settings throughout the area.
